

Start	 A close-up photograph showing a pair of hands kneading a piece of light-colored dough on a wooden surface. The dough is being pulled and folded, forming a simple braid.
Flechten des Zopfes	 A photograph of a stainless steel bread rack with several horizontal shelves, used for holding and cooling bread.
Der Holzofen	 A photograph of a bakery display case filled with various types of bread, including loaves and rolls, arranged on shelves.
Der Verkaufsladen	 A photograph of a traditional bread press, a mechanical device used to shape and flatten dough into uniform loaves.
Die Knetmaschine	 A photograph of a large, yellow cylindrical silo or storage container. It has a logo at the top and some text in German: "Futter für unsere Mitarbeiter" (Feed for our employees). The silo is decorated with blue flame-like patterns at the bottom.
Das Silo	 A photograph of a stainless steel bread rack, similar to the one in the second row, showing multiple shelves and a central support structure.
